

The Center for European Studies (CEUS) announces the 18th CEUS Workshop on European Economics

May 16 - 17, 2024

at WHU - Otto Beisheim School of Management in Vallendar/Koblenz, Germany

Founded in 2004, CEUS is an academic center that integrates both research and educational programs on European economic topics. CEUS invites researchers from universities as well as policy and financial institutions to present new research or just attend the workshop.

Call for Papers

CEUS welcomes the submission of papers on various topics in economics related to European countries. Topics of presented research papers can be related to the EU anniversaries in 2024 (25 years of monetary union; 20 years of major EU enlargement) but could also address general economic topics of European economies, such as:

- Economic effects of migration
- Barriers to the flow of goods and labor
- Production and labor in the informal economy
- International institutions and agreements, e.g., Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP)
- European economies and globalization
- Economic warfare and cyber security
- Intellectual property rights
- E-commerce and trade in services
- Trade effects of regional integration
- Macroeconomic aspects of EU developments
- International lending & debt problems
- Exchange rate issues
- Financial developments in the EU
- Issues in international financial markets
- Financial issues of economic integration
- All other fields related to international trade, labor markets, and monetary policy in Europe

Please submit an extended abstract of the paper (approx. 800 words) or the complete paper along with a cover letter including the title, name(s) of the author(s), as well as the email address of the presenting author to leoni.mendler@whu.edu (in pdf format).

The deadline for the submission of the extended abstract is April 21, 2024. CEUS will notify the authors about the acceptance shortly after. After acceptance and if only an extended abstract was submitted, the deadline to submit the complete paper is May 5, 2024. Registration for workshop participation for non-presenting attendees is possible until May 5, 2024. After registration, a tentative program and detailed information on hotels and transportation will be provided. A participation fee of € 95 will be charged and will be due at the time of registration. It includes workshop material, beverages during the workshop, luncheons, and dinner. Furthermore, please keep in mind that it is possible to attend the workshop without presenting a paper.
